Important Features of Your New Statement for Municipal & Utility Services

This statement of Municipal & Utility Services from the City of Washington replaces the old post card style "light bills" that you are accustomed to receiving in the mail. The new format allows us to provide more information about your public and utility services. Statements are now mailed in envelopes to protect your privacy. Your statement is not just a bill – it's a communications tool.

Look for information about your utility usage patterns and daily costs, updated monthly, in every statement. And look for informative flyers from the City of Washington and Washington Utilities along with your statement.

Our new statement design was developed by City of Washington employees with the needs of our customers in mind. We hope that you find it informative and easy to understand.
